Verified 13 January 2025 - Directorate for Legal and Administrative Information (Prime Minister)

Carte grise

Carte grise Follow-up of the manufacture of the certificate of registration (ex-

You can follow the progress of its manufacture on the Internet:

Carte grise Follow your application for a certificate of registration (ex-
(<https://www.service-public.gouv.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/R20907>)

Carte grise Tracking of the routing of the registration certificate (ex-

You will receive the final certificate of registration, sent by La Poste in letter followed, at your home in a period which may vary
(<https://www.service-public.gouv.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/F11475?lang=en>) .

You must pay attention to the address you provide in the online procedure. It must be as complete as possible (building number, apartment number, mailbox number, floor, hallway, staircase, "resident", etc.).

Your mailbox must contain your first and last name.

You can track the shipment of your ticket either with the registration number or with the tracking number of the Post Office. This tracking number was sent to you by email or SMS if you provided your mobile phone number.

With registration number

Track the shipment of a Certificate of Registration (<https://www.service-public.gouv.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/R71022>)

With mail tracking number

Follow-up of the dispatch of a letter or parcel on the website laposte.fr
(<https://www.service-public.gouv.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/R71030>)

Please note

An Interim Certificate of Registration (PIC) is given to you at the end of your registration process on the site ANTS. You can move around for 1 month, only in France, with your ICC. It allows you to wait for the manufacture and shipment of your final certificate of registration.

Label

If you have made an address change on the site ANTS, you will receive a label with your new address to be affixed to your certificate of registration. The label is sent to your home by regular mail.
