Does the provisional work permit for a foreigner still exist?

Verified 21 March 2024, Directorate for Legal and Administrative Information (Prime Minister)

No, no, no. Since 1^{er} April 2021, the Interim Work Authorization (ETA) no longer exists. The future employer must now request a work permit (<https://www.service-public.gouv.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/F2728?lang=en>).

Please note

The employer does not have to ask for work permit (<https://www.service-public.gouv.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/F2728?lang=en>) where the foreigner's residence permit allows him to work.
